

What is the Pikes Peak Regional Law Enforcement Teen Academy?

The CSPD and the El Paso County Sheriff's Office are pleased to announce the 8th Annual Pikes Peak Regional Law Enforcement Teen Academy.

The PRLETA provides participants with a unique opportunity to learn about the operations of regional law enforcement agencies in El Paso County.

Classes will highlight SWAT, K-9, the Regional Explosives Unit, Criminal Investigations, Drone Operations, El Paso County Search and Rescue, Negotiator Training, and other topics.

For additional information or questions, contact CSPD School Resource Officer Langlais at Joseph.langlais@coloradosprings.gov or EPSO School Resource Deputy Adkisson at coryadkisson@elpasoco.com.

Who can participate?

Interested applicants must be between the ages of 13-17 to attend the class. Applicants must be El Paso County residents and currently enrolled in or recently graduated from a school in El Paso County. Please note a "Academy Participation Liability Waiver and Indemnification Agreement" must be signed in the presence of a Notary Public. Notary Public services may be obtained at any of the CSPD stations at no cost.
